LEGO MIDDLE EAST RAMADAN CAMPAIGN EVENT: BUILDING BRIDGES

A Special Invitation

Dear Alina Liwo,

Ramadan Kareem from the LEGO team!

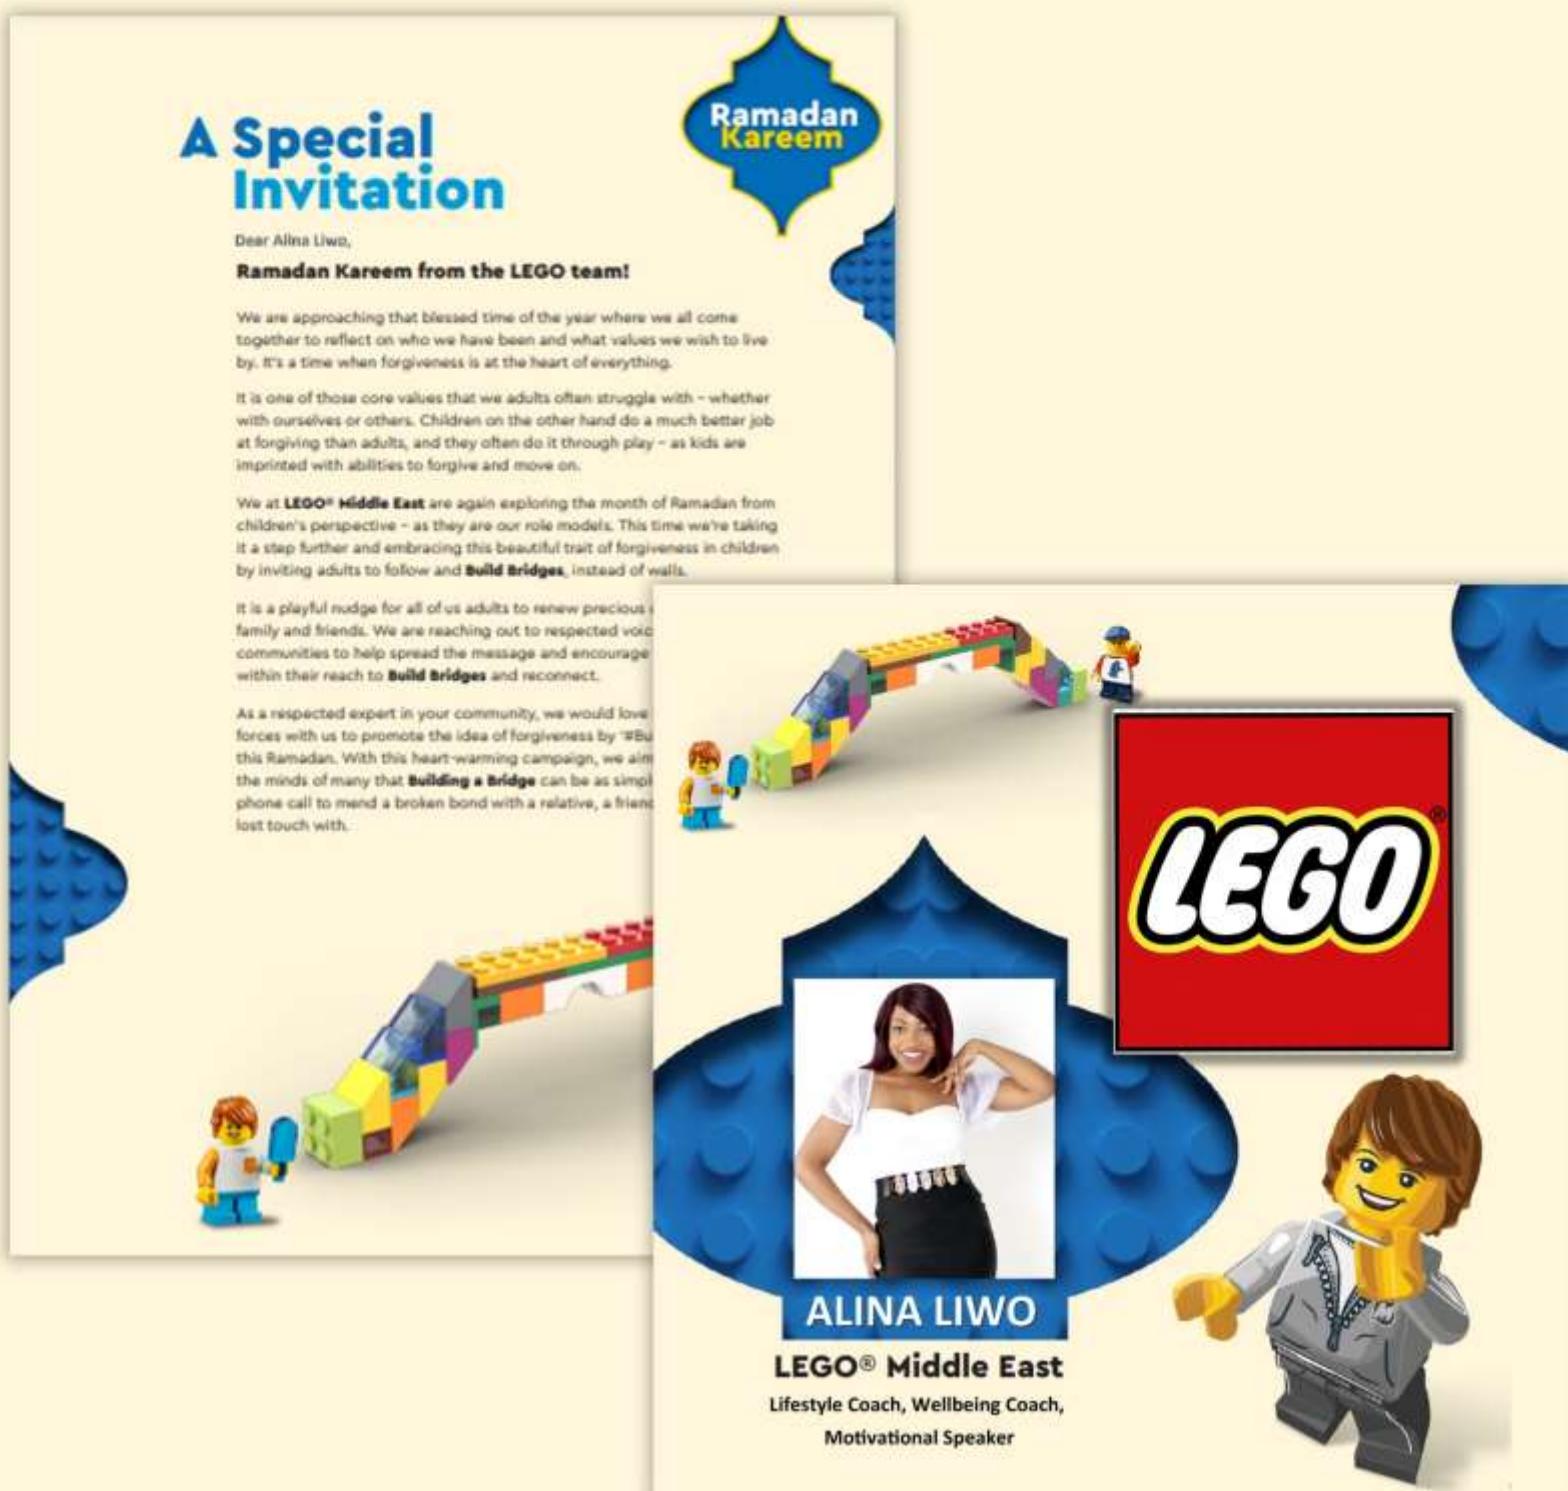

We are approaching that blessed time of the year where we all come together to reflect on who we have been and what values we wish to live by. It's a time when forgiveness is at the heart of everything.

It is one of those core values that we adults often struggle with – whether with ourselves or others. Children on the other hand do a much better job at forgiving than adults, and they often do it through play – as kids are imprinted with abilities to forgive and move on.

We at LEGO® Middle East are again exploring the month of Ramadan from children's perspective – as they are our role models. This time we're taking it a step further and embracing this beautiful trait of forgiveness in children by inviting adults to follow and Build Bridges, instead of walls.

It is a playful nudge for all of us adults to renew precious family and friends. We are reaching out to respected voice communities to help spread the message and encourage within their reach to Build Bridges and reconnect.

As a respected expert in your community, we would love forces with us to promote the idea of forgiveness by "#Bu this Ramadan. With this heart-warming campaign, we aim the minds of many that Building a Bridge can be as simple phone call to mend a broken bond with a relative, a friend lost touch with.

Ramadan Kareem
